

14 – 16 Mitchell St Wongan Hills WA

On a generous corner allotment spanning 1,012m², this distinctive property, once the bastion of the Masonic Lodge, now beckons as a unique residential opportunity. Boasting a generous 314m² under the roof, this space has been thoughtfully converted for modern living, offering endless possibilities.

With the opening of the massive Cullens Resources gold mine project anticipated for 2025, accommodation will be in demand in Wongan Hills. Developers note: This building is not heritage listed.

🔑 Key Features:

Two expansive open-plan areas providing versatility.

Fully equipped kitchen for your culinary aspirations.

Male and female ablution facilities for added convenience.

Additional Colorbond shed for storage or creative projects.

A CCTV is installed for security.

🏠 A Slice of History with Potential:

Originally serving the Masonic Lodge, this property is rich in heritage.

Unlock the potential to transform this space into your dream home or alternative accommodations.

💡 Your Vision, Your Creation:

Let your imagination run wild as you envision the possibilities for this unique property.

Seize the opportunity to contribute to the revival of this historic gem.

Properties are in high demand, and opportunities like this are rare in Wongan Hills.

Don't miss your chance to own a piece of history and shape its future.

Schedule a viewing and explore the potential of this one-of-a-kind property.

Embrace the charm of the past and the endless possibilities that await.
Don't let this opportunity slip away in the vibrant community of Wongan
Hills!